BALGOVE LARDER

Fife

Balgove offers a unique steak barn restaurant in a converted hay loft, using potato boxes to form the walls.

The agritourism offering also includes an indoor café, takeaway food and a large farm retail area with one of Scotland's largest farm shop butchery counters selling the farm's own meat.

Located on the edge of St Andrews, Balgove takes advantage of being next to one of Scotland's main tourist towns with year-round demand from visitors who come to play on the world famous golf courses or visit the University.

Balgove is located on Strathyrum estate, home to the Cheape family since 1782. The farm produces Scotch Beef, pork, vegetables and salads sold direct to consumer as well as a large cereal enterprise.

BONERBO FARM

Fife

Bonerbo Farm offers 4 luxury lodges, each sleeping 4 people. They are located near the sea in the East Neuk of Fife and are designed around the panoramic scenes of the Firth of Forth with large glass windows to take in the extensive views of the May Isle, Bass Rock and North Berwick Law.

Bonerbo Farm has been in the Stevenson family for over 100 years..

The farm grows cereals; wheat destined for distilling and oats for Quaker Porridge Oats. Andrew is also involved in a new initiative and is growing flax for the first time.

The farm produces green energy from two wind turbines that generate enough electricity annually to power 1,000 homes.

THE HIDEAWAY EXPERIENCE

Angus

The Hideaway Experience provides adult only luxury accommodation in 5 eco-lodges, designed as penthouse suites on the edge of barley fields.

Most guests are staying to celebrate special occasions such as honeymoons and birthdays.

Hosts Caroline and Ross Millar have been welcoming guests to the farm for 20 years. The family farm 1000 acres across three farms in the Sidlaw Hills in Angus producing Scotch Beef, Scotch Lamb and cereals including malting barley. Balkello Farm is where the Scottish Agritourism office and team are based.

The Millars will host an evening BBQ for the combined pre-learning journey delegates on Sunday 21st June.

MAINS OF ERROL FRUIT SHACK

Perthshire

Mains of Errol Farm is a leading soft fruit grower located on the banks of the River Tay in the fertile Carse of Gowrie, a region renowned for berry production. Along with wholesale, they sell their berries direct via their small fruit shack.

The family-run business started by David G Arnot, now in its fourth generation, began growing strawberries in 1999 and has since developed into a significant growing and packing operation across 365 acres.

Today, the farm produces high-quality soft fruit in partnership with Angus Soft Fruits, using modern polytunnel and tabletop growing systems to ensure consistent supply and an extended harvesting season.

EASTER DENHEAD

Perthshire

Easter Denhead is a relatively new farm shop located at the side of a busy country road in Perthshire.

In a short space of time, Denhead has become a regular stop off for locals and tourists. It operates as an honesty shop from early morning and into the evening. Regular farmer's markets on site, food events, farm tours, and a dog park help to boost sales.

The Neill family has become well known for early Scottish asparagus (including green and purple 'Erasmus' varieties), utilising tunnels for production. They also grow carrots, potatoes, broccoli, cauliflower, flax, barley, wheat, and soft fruits.

FOREST FARM

Aberdeenshire

Also on Heart of Aberdeenshire Core Tour

Forest Farm Dairy is owned and run by the Willis family. It is located on the edge of the City of Aberdeen. The farm is 390 acres and has 165 Friesian and Jersey dairy cows.

In 2017 the farm started selling milk directly from Scotland's first milk vending machine. In 2018 gelato production started and in 2021 a takeaway café and gardens opened.

In 2023 the farm started making and serving pizza. Over 250,000 people visit the farm each year to buy milk and other food and to enjoy the beautiful gardens and environment.

Forest Farm Dairy is part of the Core Community Group for Scotland's Agritourism Monitor Farm Programme.
